

Canada M17 announces roster for February camp

Posted on 31 January 2013 in Men's U-17 Team

Canada's Men's U-17 Team has announced its 20-player roster an upcoming camp in Sunrise, FL and Costa Rica running from 5-15 February, 2013.

Canada will train for five days in Florida before heading to Costa Rica for a pair of friendly matches against the Costa Ricans on 12 and 14 February respectively.

For U-17 Coach Sean Fleming, the upcoming camp represents an opportunity to make some final tweaks before the team takes part in the 2013 CONCACAF U-17 Championship in Panama in April – which serves as the qualification tournament for the FIFA U-17 World Cup UAE 2013 beginning in October.

“This will be our last camp before the CONCACAF Championship,” said Fleming.

“We have two new players coming in and we look forward to a pair of great matches in Central America against Costa Rica.

“This will be an opportunity for us to make some final changes and improvements; and focus on building the team's chemistry ahead of the qualifiers in April.”

The two new players entering the group are forwards Luca Uccello and Derek Cornelius.
